

"Just-what-you-need" Coats for Women

Every woman looks forward with great interest to the new styles in separate coats. They are one thing that a woman feels that she must have every winter, the one thing she really needs.

This year they are more attractive than ever. Made in warm, heavy, but not cumbersome materials, some rough, some smooth; in a variety of plain colors; in gorgeous plaids and checks—they are truly delightful.

The model illustrated on the right is a splendid example of the season's newest designs in separate coats. Its snug-fitting collar is almost airtight. Note the cuff effect and the smart flare which is held in at the waist in the front by a half belt. Isn't it just the coat for cold, blustery days?

Another one that is already very popular is of boucle. Its extreme simplicity of cut makes it ideal for everyday wear, but it would be almost impossible to find a coat of better lines or smarter cut.

Many others just as interesting and attractive are now on display. Your wardrobe is hardly complete without one of them. They're "just what you need." Inexpensively priced, too.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith, of Cratz, Ky., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carter during the week.—Mrs. Geo. Hardin, of Louisville, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Purcell this week.—Mrs. Monte Roberts and baby were with her sister, Mrs. L. B. Hilton, at Stanford during the week.—Walter Smith, Assistant Cashier of the State Bank and Trust Co., of Stanford, was the guest of Dr. W. F. Carter Sunday.—U. B. Cass, concrete foreman for the L. & E. railroad, is with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cass, this week.—Mrs. Walter Smith of Crab Orchard, was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Owens, the first of the week.—W. L. Bell and Frank Brooks of Crab Orchard, were in town last Saturday.—John E. Evans, traveling salesman for Colgate & Co., of New York, is at home this week.—Mrs. C. A. White, who has typhoid, shows very little improvement.—Services were conducted at the Methodist church last Sunday by their new pastor, the Rev. Haines.—The Rev. A. J. Pike filled his regular appointment at Freedom last Saturday and Sunday.—Judge Kennedy and Judge Flippin, of Somerset, made short speeches at the bank hall last Friday.—Mrs. Mary Albright returned last Friday from a three weeks visit to friends in Lincoln.—We noticed in last issue of the Signal this question: "Who will be the first teacher to organize a Moonlight School in Rockcastle?" Prof. J. L. Pilkenton, Principal of Brodhead Graded school, and his teachers, claim that distinction. This school was organized here more than a month ago, and great interest was manifested, and was discontinued only on account of a series of meetings beginning in town on the same hour. This school will be started shortly again, and we hope to see valuable assistance given those who are willing and not ashamed to try to read and write. Some of those who attended during this short term was able to write their names legibly in less than a week, and seemed to learn easily.—We hope that other teachers will follow the example of Prof. Pilkenton.—Mrs. Albert Albright, of Lebanon Junction, was the guest of Mrs. Mary Albright and Mrs. Jop Albright the first of the week.

In our letter last week we reported C. H. Frith, as Chief of Police of the Town of Brodhead. He was appointed but refused the honor or at least for some reason did not accept. Captain W. A. Tyree is holding that title now, and we have every reason to believe that he will do the place honor. Our marshalship heretofore has been a disgrace to any town, and we are glad that the Board of Trustees are able to place the position in better hands, and with one that can get the loyal support of all good citizens.—Since beginning our letter we are informed that the Moonlight School is in session tonight (Wednesday) and will continue nightly until further notice. Those not interested are not wanted to attend. We hope that great good will grow out of these schools, and we are proud that Brodhead has the distinction of being the first to organize in the county. Brodhead is never behind along these, as well as other lines; watch us.

We are anxious to have every farmer, trustee, teacher, and as many pupils as is possible present to hear these splendid talks. These men and this lady know their business. They have carefully studied their work. They are prepared to give you something that will help you. It will save you money and time in the way of experience to hear these people. Experience is too slow and costly this day and time. By hearing these lectures, you will be able to raise more and better corn, wheat, oats, fruits, and live stock. It's big money to you to come.

Teachers, it's only a few years till you will have to teach agriculture. This is your chance. Your County Superintendent has kindly consented to allow you count Wednesday if you attend the meeting. Come and bring your pupils and people.

BEST COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

No stock can be shipped to Cincinnati, Chicago or Louisville, it is said. All Parts of the World Newspapers

By JAMES MARET.

We are in receipt of a bundle of newspapers published in various parts of the world. Chamberlain Medicine Company, of Des Moines, Iowa, are shown to be advertisers the world over. Among the papers we find The Friend, Bloomington, South Africa; published in English. One of the "ads" says "Ford cars—5 seated $190 at the coast. Buy a Ford because it is a better car, not because it is cheaper." The East London Daily Dispatch and Frontier Advertiser, East London, South Africa, is larger than our Courier Journal and has advertisements of everything except whiskey and beer. The Madras Mail, India, has this remarkable railroad time card "ad": "Madras Southern Railway, Ltd. Alterations in the passenger trains. The public are informed that from 1st of March, 1914, the timing of certain trains will be revised. Broad gauge, the down Calcutta mail train will leave Madras at 19 hours, arrive Waltan at 15.10. Down mixed from Rayapuram will leave at 19.15 and arrive at Cocunda Fort at 20.30." This railway seems to be using the 24 hour system of "timing." This paper has one whiskey ad, bottled in Scotland. Now jump to Cuba and find La Discusion published at Havana in Spanish. It contains pictures of U. S. navy vessels at Vera Cruz. Under one of the pictures is this sentence: "Ascendados norteamericanos en orden de batalla en aguas de Vera Cruz." Translated: North America war ships in battle order in the waters of Vera Cruz. This paper also contains the picture of Mrs. Ella Flagg. Young superintendent of schools, Chicago; also "La Catastrofe de Calumet." The catastrophe of Calumet, (explosion in coal mines at Calumet, Mich.). Other things in the paper may have proved interesting had the writer's Spanish vocabulary not been limited owing to its having been used but seldom for 35 years. Dropping to the island of Ceylon, just south of India, we find The Times of Ceylon with an advertisement of government railway advising the public that "the 6:30 down thru train from Kankasanturi to Columbia will be two minutes earlier in arriving and leaving Vavuniya."

The Penang Sin Poo (The Chinese Daily News) of Penang, China, surely is some paper but no American would know it if it didn't have a few English printed words at its heading to tell us what the cat tracks and tea signs meant. Some of the ads are partly English. Chamberlain's Pain Balm shows up by imprint of carton. Advertisements from Japan, England Austria and a number from United States appear in this paper which has its column rules placed horizontally across the page instead of perpendicularly as white people make up their papers. You read these Chinese papers or rather the natives read by beginning on right hand side of paper and read downward to end of line at column rule, then repeat until column is finished on left side of the journal. The next curiosity and mystery to us people is the Cujrathi Weekly of Baroda, India. Its type is not so peculiar as that of the Chinese but is on the order of short-hand writing and but for some explanatory English we wouldn't know the name of the paper or where it came from. It also contains American and foreign ads. At the bottom of the last column appears this: "Printed and published by Manikela A. Doctor, at Sayaji Vijaya Press, Rasputra Baroda for himself in the evening of Thursday D. 19 2 1914.

The Burma Herald published at Rangoon, Burma, a province of East India, is another paper printed with peculiar type of which only three or four have any resemblance to our English type yet the pages have a pleasing appearance quite different to the Chinese papers. The heading of the Herald is printed both in English and the language of its native country whatever it is, we don't know. The Daily Gleaner published in English at Kingston, Jamaica, one of the British possessions south of Cuba. The first ad we see at top of page reads, Sugar and Rum. Next Dr. Sawyers Cushioned Shoes. Prices are shown in pence, shillings and pounds. Victor talking machines Columbia Graphophones, Edison Phonographs are shown in the ad columns along with Chamberlain's and other American houses.

The Siam Observer, the first daily to be published in that country is an English publication and like all of them spell labor with a u, labour. One of its biggest ads is of "sterilized milk" which after being sterilized is shipped into the tropics where it is claimed it keeps in good condition. The Milkmaid Company claims to use daily the milk given by over 115,000 cows. Sterilized milk is just as it comes from the cow except that the bacteria has been destroyed. Soerabaiasch Nieuwsblad is a heading of a paper from Java, an island lying between Australia and India. This sheet is Dutch. Telephone is the way it spells telephone. The Mandalay Herald, published in English at Mandalay, Upper Burma has but little resemblance to our American papers in its get up or style of type used. El Comercio is a Spanish printed paper from Manila. Philippine Islands. De Surinemer is a Dutch paper where it is published none but a Dutchman can tell. The last on our list is the Sind Sudha printed at Karachi, India, from type resembling short hand and in Malayalam language. This paper bears two postage stamps reading "India Postage" "Three Pies." It fails to state whether they are to be custard or pumpkin pies.

This interesting collection of world newspapers can be seen by calling upon Mr. Maret.

DODSON-WATSON

Beautiful Wedding at Evangelical Church Thursday, In Presence of Large Assemblage.

An attractive wedding took place at the Evangelical church on Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock when Miss Claudia Augusta Dodson and Rev. George Smith Watson were united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Frank Cheek of Danville, Ky., an uncle of the groom, who entered the church and walked to the altar, as the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march were played on the pipe organ by Rev. Sheo Schlundt, pastor of the church. The bridal party entered the church at the same time, the bride accompanied by her father being preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Watson, sister of the groom, and met the groom at the altar, who had entered from the right aisle with the best man, Rev. Carl T. Mickel.

The ring ceremony was then given by Dr. Cheek in a most beautiful manner. Miss Dodson was gowned in a beautiful dress of white crepe meteor with lace; she wore a tulle veil fastened in cap effect with lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was a shower of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Charlotte Watson, as maid of honor wore a gown of yellow crepe meteor with lace and black hat and carried a large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride is the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. N. Dodson, of this city a lady of charming manner. She is an accomplished musician, having taught in various schools. Mr. Watson was born in Frankfort, Ky., but his home at present is in Booneville, Ky., at which place he has a cozy home to take his bride after their return from their wedding trip. He is well known by many in this city, having on several occasions filled the pulpit in the Evangelical church, while visiting here.

After the ceremony, the bridal party and a number of invited friends were received at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dodson on Tenth street, where congratulations were extended to the young couple.

Miss Clara Dodson, sister of the bride, then led the guests into the dining room where, in shape of white wedding slippers and white and yellow cakes, coffee and mints were served from the brides table which was done in yellow and white. The house decorations were autumn leaves with yellow chrysanthemums as well as the decorations at the church, besides palms and ferns and beautiful fall grasses.

At four o'clock the couple was escorted to the ferry then across to the train at Petri Station, who in spite of protests, decorated the automobile with bells, old shoes, yellow streamers etc. and showered them heartily with rice.

The News joins their many friends in this city and elsewhere in wishing them a long and happy wedded life. —Tell City News, Ind.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAINS

In Many States, Though
Democrats Will Control
Senate and the House

Chas. S. Whitman Elected
Governor of New York
Over Gov. Glynn

Beckham Elected Senator From Kentucky—Pennsylvania Makes Big Republican Gains—Governor Hooper Defeated in Tennessee—Illinois Goes Back Into the Republican Column.

Western Newspaper Union News Service
HIGH SPOTS IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Washington, D. C.—Democrats still control Congress, despite big Republican gains. House will be Democratic by a majority of about 25. One member gained by Democrats in Senate.

Woman suffrage was defeated in Missouri, Ohio and North and South Dakota, and is in doubt in Nebraska Nevada and Montana.

State-wide prohibition was defeated in California and Ohio; won in Arizona, and is in doubt in Colorado Washington and Oregon.

Feature of the national election was the great slump of the Progressive party vote, the great bulk of it returning to the Republicans.

Socialists gain three seats in Congress—two from Wisconsin and one from New York.

New York—Charles S. Whitman, Rep., was elected governor of New York over Martin H. Glynn, Dem. The only question is the size of his plurality.

James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Rep., has defeated James W. Gerard, Dem., for the United States Senate in the first popular election for that office, but ran behind Whitman's plurality figures by many thousand votes.

Returns from all sections of the state indicate that the Republican have carried both houses of the state legislature and have elected minor candidates in a great majority of the districts.

Republican campaign managers are claiming a landslide for their candidates.

Illinois Republican.

Illinois in company with several other states, resumed its old position in the Republican column.

The chief contest centered on United States Senator, the result is in considerable doubt, but favoring Lawrence Y. Sherman, Rep., over Roger C. Sullivan, Dem.; W. Raymond Robins, Bull Moose, appearing as a very poor third.

Moss Believed To Be Safe.

Terra Haute, Ind.—Returns from half the precincts of Vigo county indicate that the congressional ticket will be elected with a plurality exceeding 2,000. Returns from other counties of the Fifth Indiana district indicate the return to congress of Ralph W. Moss, of Clay county, by a close vote.

Hooper Is Defeated.

Nashville, Tenn.—The election of Thomas C. Rye, Democratic candidate for governor of Tennessee, was conceded by the managers for Governor Ben W. Hooper, Republican-Fusionist candidate for re-election.

Control of House.

Washington.—Democratic control of the senate and house is assured for another two years as a result of the elections, but the Democratic majority in the house is considerably reduced.

Incomplete returns indicate that in place of the majority of 163 that President Wilson took into office with him the administration will have a majority that may not exceed 100.

Both parties profess to be satisfied with the result. The Democrats declare that the reduction in their majority is not much more than was to have been expected in view of the fact that the sixty-third congress was elected two years ago in one of the most overwhelming landslides that any party ever scored.

La Follette Defeated.

Milwaukee, Wis.—United States Senator La Follette's entry into the Wisconsin gubernatorial election, with the Independent-Fusion-Progressive gubernatorial candidacy of John J. Blaine, was rewarded by a complete overthrow. Blaine running a weak third. His total vote will be about 30,000, or less than the estimated 35,000 plurality of E. L. Phillips, standard Republican, over John C. Karel, Democrat.

Returns Favor Johnson.

San Francisco.—Mayor Johnson returns from a few scattering precincts in the election in California show returns slightly in favor of William W. Johnson, Progressive candidate for governor and lieutenant governor. Johnson, a Republican, is a close second, and indications are that the race and between them will be rather close in the pre-election betting Johnson was a 2 to 1 favorite.

Republicans Gain in West Virginia. Charleston, W. Va.—Although fairly returns from scattering precincts in West Virginia show surprising gains for the Republicans of the anti-handle State, the result in several of the congressional districts is in doubt.

Owing to the meager returns from the precincts in the election in Louisiana, it is the first second and third districts. Congressmen—Lange, Henry Sutherland is said to have been elected over Br. Thomas B. Hedge, according to the early returns, and Edward Cooper, of Brumwell, a Republican, will succeed James A. Hays in the Fifth District. Cooper has won over George I. Neel, Democrat.

From The Pay State.

Bozeman.—Governor David L. Walsh, Democrat, was leading, according to returns of upward of three quarters of the state, in the election, but it was uncertain whether the Democrats had been able to again secure other place in the state ticket.

Republican Sweep.

New Haven, Conn.—There was a Republican sweep in Connecticut, the entire state ticket being carried by about 2,000. Five Republican representatives in Connecticut were also elected. Simeon E. Baldwin, the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate's running mate, was elected. F. B. Brandegee, but he probably will be defeated by 3,000 votes.

Pennsylvania Republican.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Pennsylvania came back strongly into the Republican column, that party electing Boies Penrose to the United States Senate and Martin G. Brumbaugh, governor by pluralities that may exceed 200,000. The vote was unexpectedly large, exceeding that cast for president in 1912. The Republicans also elected their candidates for internal affairs, as well as four congressmen—largely T. S. Crago, Mahlon M. Garland, Daniel F. Laffan and John R. K. Scott.

Legislature Is Close.

Wilmington, Del.—Secretary of State Thomas W. Miller, Republican, was elected as Delaware's only representative in congress over Franklin Brookson, Democrat, the incumbent, by a plurality throughout the state that will exceed 500. Kent and Sussex counties went Democratic, but a largely increased Republican vote in this city will carry Miller through. His majority in Wilmington will be at least 2,000. The legislature will probably be close.

Willis For Governor.

Columbus, O.—With vigorous claims for victory from both the Democratic and Republican headquarters for victory on the governorship the trend, based on estimates rather than actual figures, indicated the success of Congressman Frank B. Willis, the Republican nominee, and away from Governor James M. Cox.

The chief executive, with reports from his supporters, believes that his plurality will range between 25,000 and 40,000.

Beckham For Senator.

Louisville, Ky.—J. C. Beckham, former governor of Kentucky, won by a plurality of 40,000 in his race for United States Senator on the Democratic ticket. His Republican opponent, former Governor Augustus E. Wilson, made gains in counties where the Bull Moose vote was strong two years ago. Returns from the city precincts show a large falling off in the Progressive vote and a corresponding gain in the Republican vote.

Senator Shively Wins.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Incomplete returns from practically every county in Indiana indicated the re-election of Senator Shively, Democrat, to United States Senate by a plurality not less than 25,000. The same returns indicate the election of the entire Democratic state ticket by a vote practically the same as that of Senator Shively.

TONIGHT.—At the Court House the Commercial Club in connection with the Woman's Club and citizens of our town will hold a meeting for the purpose of organization and appointment of committees to lay and work out plans for the improvement of Elmwood cemetery which has been in a wretched condition for some time. The proposition, as stated in these columns heretofore, is to clean and clear up the grounds of all weeds, vines, sprouts, bushes and rubbish, to remove fencing between lots, put down walks thru and about the cemetery, put down a side walk from the eastern corner to town and other improvements and make a respectable resting place for our dead instead of allowing the place to grow up in weeds and briars. The question has been taken up by the above organizations and everyone is requested to take an interest in this much needed improvement.

The corn, vegetable and pumpkin show in front windows of J. Fish & Son's store "on the corner" continues to attract much attention and interest therein is increasing. Since last issue there has been added to the display 15 more samples of white and yellow seed corn, giant mango peppers, Kafir corn, giant cucumbers, 85-pound pumpkin, Honoulla squash or cymbling, 48-pound long neck squash, circled squash (grown into a complete circle), Tom Thumb carrots, old-time made sorghum, black corn, 6 3/4-pound sweet potato, 5 3/4-pound turnip, freak Irish potato. No big Irish potatoes have been brought in. The exhibition is proving a decided success and will prove of lasting good to our farmers, who no doubt will make greater efforts next year to improve and increase their output and be ready for the big corn and vegetable show to be given next year at Mt. Vernon.

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION.

It is not all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Miss. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

BECKHAM AND CAMDEN WIN

Kentucky Democrats are Given Big Majorities—Two Republicans Win

Beckham's Majority Close to 40,000—First Kentuckian Elected By Direct Vote

Rollin Hurt is Elected Judge of Appellate Court—Caleb Powers Victorious in Eleventh—Senator Camden's Majority Will Exceed 40,000—Progressives Cast Light Vote Over the State.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Louisville.—J. C. W. Beckham, Democrat, is the first Kentuckian to be sent to the United States senate by direct vote of the people. He triumphed at the polls by a majority very close to 40,000. Johnson N. Camden, Democratic candidate for the short term, which expires March 4, is returned to the senate by a majority in excess of 40,000 and has the honor of leading his ticket hand somely.

J. C. W. BECKHAM, ELECTED U.S. SENATOR IN KENTUCKY.

Augustus E. Willson, former governor of the state and Republican senatorial candidate, gets second place and leads Burton Vance, Progressive, by a large majority. The race between Republicans and Progressives was the only real contest as the Democratic candidates ran well ahead of their opponents in all instances.

The Progressive vote throughout the state has dwindled amazingly, notably so in the Fifth Congressional district where the 23,000 votes cast in the last election has fallen off to a bare 8,000 at the polls.

In the 11 congressional race throughout the state no change what ever in the complexion of the Kentucky delegation was made. Democratic candidates have been elected by comfortable majorities in all districts save two, the Tenth and Eleventh where John W. Langley and Caleb Powers, Republicans, are returned to congress.

The only new face in the entire Kentucky delegation, therefore, is that of David H. Kincheloe, who succeeds A. O. Stanley in the Second district. Mr. Beckham has carried nine of the eleven congressional districts.

Swager Sherley, congressman, commenting on his victory, said: "I am very deeply gratified by the large majority my friends have given me."

In the First district the Democrats are claiming to have won by a majority of 6,300, conceding Caldwell county to Willson and the Republican ticket by 37 votes. Crittenden county was the only other county in the district to return a Republican majority. The count giving the latter party 2,400 votes, leaving 2,400 not voting in the city.

Johnson N. Camden received 417 more votes than Beckham, while in the county Camden's lead over Beckham was only 49. In the city Willson got 514 more votes than Bullitt, while in the country he got only 48 more.

SENATORS LONG TERM. J. C. W. Beckham, (Dem.) SHORT TERM. Johnson N. Camden, (Dem.)

CONGRESSMEN

1st Dist. Alben W. Barkley, D.
2nd Dist. David H. Kincheloe, D.
3rd Dist. Robert Y. Thomas, D.
4th Dist. Ben Johnson, D.
5th Dist. Swager Sherley, D.
6th Dist. Arthur B. Rouse, D.
7th Dist. J. C. Cantrell, D.
8th Dist. Harvey Helm, D.
9th Dist. W. J. Fields, D.
10th Dist. John W. Langley, R.
11th Dist. Caleb Powers, R.

the latter by the scant margin of 31 votes. All of the other counties of the district were safely Democratic. Ben Johnson returns to congress from this district.

The Democrats had easy romping in the Seventh district, pulling down a majority estimated at 6,000.

In the Eighth district the Republicans carried but a single county, Madison, and that by a majority of 37 votes. This is Gov. McCreary's home county. Harvey Helm won re-election to congress.

In the Ninth district the Democrats carried 6 of the 13 counties, returns at midnight showing a majority of 500 for the state ticket. Party leaders in Louisville are claiming the district by 3,500.

John W. Langley, Republican, captured congressional honors again in the Tenth district, claiming the district by 4,500.

In the Eleventh district Caleb Powers was re-elected to congress on the Republican ticket by a majority of approximately 1,200 over John Henry Wilson, Independent candidate. Caleb Powers claims to have been elected by 10,000 majority, and in a statement says he has carried every county in the district.

In the Third Appellate district Judge Rollin Hurt has won over Judge Jas. Denton.

Democracy in the Fifth district rolled up record majorities for all its candidates.

Swager Sherley is returned to congress for his seventh term by a majority of 15,971, by far the largest he has ever received.

Beckham carried the district by 12,372 for the full-term senator, while Johnson N. Camden received a majority of 15,307. Louisville Democrats were exuberant at their showing, and declared no other district in the state will approximate the victory here.

Total Vote is 38,000.

The total vote in the district approximates 38,000, while a normal vote is in the neighborhood of 55,000.

No trouble of any kind developed at the polls here. The election was exceedingly quiet. Little interest was shown here in any of the political races.

Voters here evinced far more interest in the race among school trustees in which the women participated. The candidates supported by the women Messrs. Bloom, Gottschalk and Weaver, were re-elected by handsome majorities.

The commission form of government carried at Middlesboro, Hopkinsville and Harrodsburg and was defeated at Owensboro and Frankfort.

At Owensboro a $60,000 bond issue for the purpose of building a new city hall was defeated.

At Winchester the proposal to grant the city council permission to enter into a contract with the Winchester Water Co. to furnish water from the Kentucky river was rejected.

BECKHAM WINNER IN FAYETTE

Lexington, Ky.—J. C. Beckham carried Fayette county by 195 votes over Augustus E. Willson.

There was a heavy stay-at-home element. The total registered vote in the city of Lexington was 8,621 and only 5,821, as shown by the race for the long term as United States senator, went to the polls, leaving 2,800 not voting in the city.

Johnson N. Camden received 417 more votes than Beckham, while in the county Camden's lead over Beckham was only 49. In the city Willson got 514 more votes than Bullitt, while in the country he got only 48 more.

FINN GOES TO TEXAS.

Frankfort, Ky.—Governor McCreary designated Lawrence Finn, chairman of the State Railroad Commission, to go to Texas November 9 to attend meeting of representatives of the various Southern States to plan a uniform method to regulate freight rates. Governor McCreary to attend the meeting, but as the Governor has made arrangements to go to Alabama, look over his plantation at that time delegated Finn.

FREE NURSERY PLANNED.

Frankfort, Ky.—Plans are under way for the establishment of a free nursery at the Kentucky Normal and Industrial School of this city. Albert Martin, of Junction, will assist J. E. Barton, state forester, in establishing the nursery. Twelve seed beds will be planted containing 100,000 seeds. The state nursery of the Kentucky State fair grounds will be enlarged this fall, and by next spring Barton hopes to have 1,000 trees of various kinds to sell.
